CU CHANGE PRESIDENT'S

Dr. Martin Inaugurated As University
President.

Dr. Martin gives a grin for the camera while giving his inaugural speech.

"Cumberland University is in the business of building "futures." Here students enter into a partnership with faculty and staff to develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that will serve them well into their personal, family and community life. Building a future is a serious and very personal and individual endeavor. It is our primary reason for being here."

— Dr. Clair Martin

INAUGURAL CEREMONY

On October 6, 1995, Dr. Clair Eugene Martin was formally welcomed as President of Cumberland University. Dr. Martin was elected by the University's Board of Trust following the retirement of Dr. Ray C. Phillips in December, 1994.

In an elaborate ceremony, which began with an academic procession, Dr. Jeanette Rudy presented Dr. Martin with a decorative mace and chain. The mace, a traditional symbol of power, has its roots in medieval warfare. The mace and chain, donated to Cumberland by Dr. Rudy, was crafted by Mr. Klaus Kallenberger of Murfreesboro.

Dr. Martin gives his inauguration speech.

Members of SGA proceed faculty in the academic procession.

Pipers from The Nashville Pipe and Drums lead the procession into the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

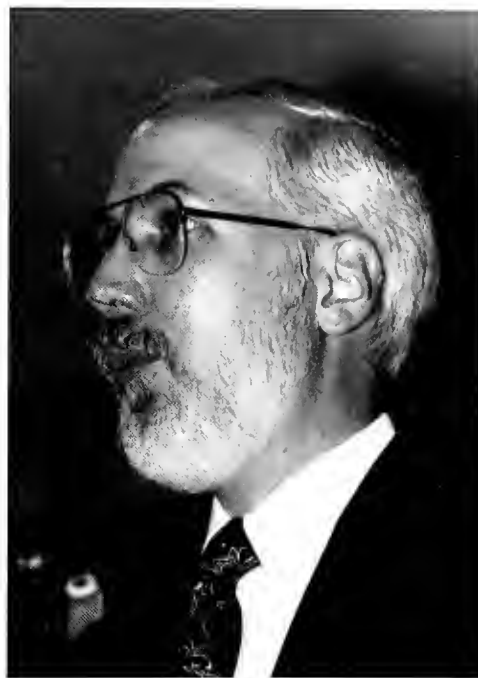

Dr. Martin and Klaus Kallenberger admire the ceremonial mace.

Dr. Jeanette Rudy presents Dr. Martin with the mace and chain.

Dr. Dean Martin, brother of Cumberland's newest president, delivers the invocation.

Dean William McKee is all smiles for the event.

GALA DINNER

The festivities continued through the evening with a gala dinner. Students from different school groups, faculty and members of various Cumberland boards were in attendance. The black tie affair was a celebration to congratulate Dr. Martin.

Dr. Martin shares a few words with those in attendance.

FREEDOM WRITERS

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL is a worldwide voluntary movement, which is independent of any government, political faction, ideology, economic interest, or religious creed that works to prevent some of the gravest violations by governments of peoples' fundamental human rights. This is Cumberland University's first year with an Amnesty Chapter. We are a small group who have done big things to help those imprisoned solely for their beliefs, color, sex, ethnic origin, language or religion, who have not used or advocated the use of violence. We have worked on cases such as the repression of student movements in China, Burma, Nigeria, and the Ivory Coast, to name a few. We reinforce the need for all students to continue a committed effort in working for positive change in the area of human rights.

It takes a tremendous effort from a large group of people to compile and complete a yearbook. This year we had an extremely small staff and depended largely on others for help. To everyone who so patiently and diligently came to our aid, "THANK YOU!"

We apologize for any oversight on our part. We were thorough and diligent and attempted to cover every group at Cumberland University as completely as possible. Thanks go out to the organizations, societies and coaches for their help. We appreciate your efforts in getting together to have your photo taken and gathering information so it was possible for us to do the layouts.

The following individuals and companies took most of the photographs in this yearbook. We would like to thank you for your photographic abilities and patience. Many thanks to Brainworks for the picture of Memorial Hall, Dallis Whitfield for the Awards Banquet, Commencement and Inauguration photographs, Gaines du Valle for the football team photo, Tommy Brian and Andy Reed for the sports candid, Erin Vaughn for the tennis action shots and Sonny Barrett for the majority of the rest of the photographs.

In addition to the pictures, there were a handful of people who took time out of their hectic schedules to help us a number of different times. Dave Sherman endured our endless questions about the sports teams and helped us gather information and photographs. Melinda Yarbrough, who got us into this project in the first place, took a number of photographs and also withstood our constant inquiries about various student organizations and events. Harold McGehee from Jostens assisted our staff in a variety of areas. Only one staff member had yearbook experience so we continually tested Harold's knowledge and patience of yearbook production. Judith Kidwell helped with ideas, photographs, events, identification and just about everything else involved in the production of this yearbook. Our gratitude and appreciation is beyond comprehension. Without your help, we would not have a yearbook.
